U.S. Mint Announces W Mint Mark Circulating Quarter Collectible Two Million Each of 2019 America the Beautiful Coins Being Struck at West Point

The United States Mint announced today that it has released the first ever circulating coins with West Point mint marks. Throughout the remainder of the year, two million each of the scheduled 2019 America the Beautiful Quarters will be minted at West Point. The first of these coins bearing W mint marks were mixed in with quarters produced at Philadelphia and Denver and shipped on April 1. As with all circulating coins, the W mint mark quarters will be distributed to banks and financial institutions by the Federal Reserve. The coins will likely begin to appear in circulation within four to six weeks. The announcement of the W mint mark quarters coincides with the 227th anniversary of the United States Mint on April 2 and kicks off a program designed to spark a renewed interest in coin collecting. The release also ties in with the American Numismatic Association's National Coin Week (April 21-27) and parallels a separate initiative that organizers have dubbed "the Great American Coin Hunt." The coin hunt is a hobby-promoting event sponsored by participating coin dealers across the nation, who have publicly announced plans to place some of their own collectible coins into circulation by using them in commercial transactions during National Coin Week.

"We want to encourage Americans to consider coin collecting by making the W mint mark quarters only available in general circulation," said United States Mint Director David Ryder. "We're fortunate to be able to feature the W mint mark quarters at the same time dealers around the nation are mounting a similar effort to celebrate and promote the hobby of numismatics."

The America the Beautiful Quarters to be released in 2019 will honor Lowell National Historic Park (Massachusetts), American Memorial Park (Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas Islands), War in the Pacific National Historic Park (Guam), San Antonio Mission National Historical Park (Texas), and the Frank Church River of No Return Wilderness (Idaho). Beyond the ten million W mint mark quarters, the Mint will produce additional coins as usual at the Philadelphia and Denver Mint facilities to meet the demands of commerce. REMEMBER! CHECK YOUR CHANGE!

Also be warned, the PROOF sets (both silver and c/n) and the mint sets will contain 2 extra items. An envelope with paper and a plastic baggie with a Lincoln cent carrying the "W" mint mark! Open your items over a table! The envelope and coin will fall out separately!!

Maundy Money, or Alms, was given to 93 Senior Citizens who had served their communities by Queen Elizabeth II on April 18th. Each red and white bag contained coins, including a 5 Pound coin. The 93 Seniors represented the Queen's age today. She is now 93 years old. This custom of giving Alms dates back to King Henry VIII's time.
